Assistant Consents Manager

Description

Speyhawk Ltd are recruiting for an Assistant Consents Manager / Assistant Project Manager for a leading consultancy working on major infrastructure projects in the UK.

Basic Up to £45,000 + Pension & Personal Bonus (10%)

The challenge offered by this unique appointment demands a highly motivated individual, who is looking to develop their career in the specialist field of consent management on major infrastructure projects in the UK, to include energy, nuclear, ports, roads and rail.

The Consents Management team is a standalone business unit, offering a cohesive service to contractors, consultants and government agencies alike. The modus operandi of the consent management team is to ultimately support clients in mitigating contractual risks, providing a secure and fast route to delivery.

This role doesn't just stop at the point of planning approval, they track the entire project lifecycle, acting as the interface between planning and managing the compliance for waste management, environmental permits, project governance, risk registers, discharge requirements, programme, costs and quality metrics.

Our client is not looking for a Project Planner / Programmer. The team is made up of town planning, environmental, project management and legal professionals, so it's likely you will be from an allied field, however a degree is not essential.

Prior exposure working on major bids as an Assistant Consents Manager, Town Planner, Or Environmental Manager involving compulsory purchases, land referencing, consent management or development consent orders would be a distinct advantage.

The role will be split between their offices in London and projects. You will be able to communicate to a high level, interacting with Contractors, Consultants and key Stakeholders.

The remuneration figure shown assumes a basic salary of up to £45,000 per annum + a bonus of 10%, in addition sick pay and pension contribution.
