Electrical Supervisor

Description
Electrical Supervisor | Office based | Hertfordshire

Contract: Temporary or Temp-to-Permanent
Start: Immediate

Salary / Rate: Up to £50,000 or £250 per day shift. Negotiable, depending on experience

The Opportunity

An established electrical contractor with over 30 years' experience across London and the Home Counties is looking to appoint an experienced Electrical Supervisor to support its growing workload across social housing projects.

This is an immediate requirement, initially on a temporary basis, with the potential for a permanent position for the right individual.

The role will be office-based processing certification in accordance with the required technical and compliance standards.

The Person

You will be an experienced Electrical Supervisor with a strong background in electrical testing, inspection and certification, ideally within social housing or local authority environments.

You will need:

- A recognised electrical qualification.
- Strong knowledge of electrical inspection, testing and certification.
- A sound understanding of current electrical regulations and compliance requirements.

This is an immediate requirement, and applications are invited from experienced Electrical Supervisors available for either a temporary or temp-to-permanent opportunity.
