

Freelance Quantity Surveyor

Description

Freelance | Part time | Work from home | Quantity Surveyor – Specialist Contractor – Hertfordshire

Daily rate negotiable.

Freelance Quantity Surveyor to join Specialist Fit Out Contractor operating across London and the Southern Home Counties.

Our client is a long-established name in the specialist fit out sector and are renowned for their traditional values and quality. As part of their expansion they have a new opening for a Freelance Quantity Surveyor to join their team, either from their offices or there is the option to work from home, as preferred. They are highly successful in the delivery of projects up to £2.5million in value, mainly refurbishment or fast track fit out of retail premises.

They are looking for someone who has a solid training and demonstrable experience in the UK fit out market on related retail projects. You will be responsible for pricing, procurement and payment of trade contractors, documenting variations and reconciling accounts.

This role would be ideal for an already self-employed contractor, who's looking to expand their client base and happy to commit to two or three days a week (longer term).

If you are seeking a new and stimulating challenge, offering you the autonomy to run your own jobs and work closer to home or indeed from home, then please apply below or upload your CV in strict confidence to Jamie Pearson quoting the reference: Freelance QS JP685
