Project Manager Construction

Description

Project Manager – Public & Private Sector Works

Up to £85,000 + Benefits & Profit Share

A well-established building contractor who are highly successful in the delivery of traditional, 2 Stage D&B and framework contracts are recruiting for a Senior Project Manager to run a couple of projects at any given time, with combined values of circa £15-25million.

The Project Manager required will have a proven work history gained in the UK on both public and private sector works, to include education, healthcare or leisure. In addition they need to have not only a strong understanding of the basic principles of construction methodology, but also a desire to produce a quality finish and ensure the successful and timely completion of each project.

You could come from a production/trades background or similarly degree qualified in Construction Management, but latterly your experience must include time spent in a traditional main contracting environment. You are successful, but feel the need for a new and exciting challenge with clearly defined career objectives in a business that can offer long term prospects.

The salary offered is realistic, but is fully negotiable and will depend on experience.
