Sales Manager

Description

Job Opportunity: Sales Manager | Ready-Mix Concrete Contractor | Middle East

Are you a results-driven professional with a passion for construction and sales? Do you thrive in high-energy environments and have a knack for closing deals that shape the skylines of tomorrow? Join a busy team and lead the charge in delivering premium-quality ready-mix concrete to some of the Middle East's most iconic mega projects.

Your Role

As Sales Manager, you will:

- Drive Growth: Expand our client base by building strong relationships with contractors, consultants, and developers.
- Lead Sales Strategy: Develop and execute effective sales strategies tailored to mega projects.
- Ensure Satisfaction: Collaborate with project teams to ensure timely and seamless delivery of ready-mix concrete, meeting exacting quality standards.
- Monitor Market Trends: Stay ahead of industry trends, competitor activities, and project opportunities to secure a competitive edge.
- Achieve Targets: Set and exceed sales goals.

What We're Looking For

- Experience: 5+ years in Sales management, preferably in the ready-mix concrete or construction materials industry.
- Knowledge: Deep understanding of the construction landscape, particularly in mega projects across the Middle East or some prior international exposure.
- Skills: Proven track record in B2B sales, excellent negotiation skills, and ability to develop long-term client relationships.
- Adaptability: Familiarity with the region's culture, market dynamics, and business practices.

What's on Offer

- Attractive Compensation: £80,000 per annum TAX FREE
- Transport Allowance & Generous Performance Bonus
- Annual Flights
- 25 days leave plus National Holidays
