Senior Chartered Quantity Surveyor

Description

Senior Chartered Quantity Surveyor – Hotels – London

Up to £80,000 per annum, plus travel, health, pension and profit share

A forward-looking Cost and Project Management Consultancy are currently recruiting for a Senior Chartered Quantity Surveyor or Cost Manager to join their specialist Hotels division. A long-established name within the hospitality sector, they have built up an enviable reputation and client list of leading brands, ranging from your recognised brands through to boutique developments, with values ranging typically from £25million – £100m.

They offer a full turnkey service across all disciplines, CAPEX refurbishment, new build and acquisition and transfer. You will be responsible for creating effective cost plans, procurement strategies, value engineering and day to day commercial activities on live projects. You will work closely with the client's team, design consultants and supply chain.

This role is office based in the West End with travel to sites within central London and the M25. You will be degree qualified, with a BSc Quantity Surveying or Construction Management/MSc in Quantity Surveying and relevant Cost Management experience working for a consultancy or commercial practice on hospitality or high-end residential projects in the UK.

Key Criteria:

- BSc Quantity Surveyor (Chartered)
- Cost Management Experience (Consultancy)
- A background in Building (not heavy civils, infrastructure or oil and gas)
- London based or within daily proximity
- Relevant project experience (Hospitality or High End Residential)
