Senior Quantity Surveyor

Description

Senior Quantity Surveyor – Commercial Manager – Super Prime Residential – London

Up to £100,000 basic + 10% bonus, travel allowance, health and pension

Our client, is a prestigious development management organisation undertaking a major new build scheme in the West End, comprising prime residential and ancillary facilities, to include spa, serviced apartments and retail offering.

This is a unique opportunity for a Commercial Manager or Senior Quantity Surveyor from a Contracting, Cost Consultancy or Developer background to join the client's team, procuring and managing building packages on a £250million+ project. Working alongside the Commercial Director you will be responsible for the commercial management of appointed subcontractors, CVRs, processing change orders and variations.

It's likely you will be degree educated (BSc. Quantity Surveying), with five years' plus experience gained as a Senior Quantity Surveyor with a leading main contractor, residential developer or cost management /commercial consultancy in the UK.

Previous experience as a Senior Quantity Surveyor on major projects (new build), within the confines of inner-city London would be a considerable advantage. Candidates must have a good all-round knowledge of construction, in particular fit-out packages.

If you are looking to join a dynamic business that rewards personal achievement then please upload your CV in the strictest of confidence quoting the reference: Senior Quantity Surveyor JP655
