Trainee Project Manager

Description

Trainee Project Manager (Commercial Fit-out)

Salary of up to £30,000, pension and annual bonus

An opportunity to work for a specialist contractor operating within the fast paced commercial fit out sector in London and the Home Counties.

Whilst this is a trainee role, my client is ideally looking for someone who is either recently qualified or in their final year of a construction related degree. Equally you could have already cut your teeth in the industry and looking to further your career.

You will work closely with a Project Manager/Contracts Manager. Responsibilities will include ordering materials, ensuring they get to site and monitoring trade contractors.

They require someone that can communicate proficiently and interact with people at all levels.

This is an immediate requirement that could offer the successful individual a stepping stone into a career in Project Management.
